

A small glaciated hill, composed of banded gneiss, at the margin of the inland ice. The position was measured by astronomical observation to be $68^{\circ}28.5'S$ in lat. and $41^{\circ}23.8'E$ in long.

(by E. Nishibori)

Gravelly land on the coast at about $68.2^{\circ}S$ and $42.6^{\circ}E$.

(by T. Kikuchi)

A small glaciated hill, composed of banded gneiss, at $42.4^{\circ}E$ and $68.3^{\circ}S$. The foreground is sea ice.

(by T. Kitamura)